Easton CE Academy Anti-Bullying Policy

Introduction to the importance of challenging anti-bullying in Church of England Academies within the Diocese of Bristol

The Church of England has a mission to see all children and young people in our schools flourish and acknowledges that a culture of bullying will have a detrimental effect on academic standards as well as on pupil wellbeing and happiness. It is vital that all academies within the trust have robust systems for creating a culture of hospitality and welcome for all and for countering any behaviours that may be detrimental to pupils.

Any anti-bullying strategies must address and log the following protected categories:

Racism, SEN or Disability, Homophobia, Religion or Belief, Sexism or sexual harassment, Gender identity, Appearance - other than race, an association factor (family members or home context), other or non specific

To that end all schools within DBAT must have a behaviour and anti-bullying policy and should have an inclusion policy which will relate to their Christian Ethos statement.

Each school must have a logging system for monitoring bullying related incidents and these will be reported to the Local board (depending on the Academy's terms of reference) and levels of bullying will be monitored by the board.

DBAT will ask for a summary report to be presented to the trust annually and will evaluate and provide scrutiny of the effectiveness of behaviour and anti-bullying policies in academies across the diocese.

Each school will also include opportunities for exploring anti-bullying and good behaviour throughout the curriculum and through pertinent themes and texts that will be examined in Collective Worship.

The following are policies, logging formats and questionnaires that may be adapted by Academies in DBAT

Introduction

“All children are a gift from God. They are all special and should be allowed to develop and grow in a nurturing environment secure in the knowledge that they are cherished.”<sup>2</sup>

At Easton CE Academy, we endeavour to create a safe and stimulating environment where everyone knows that they are valued. A person has the right to be treated with respect and has the responsibility to treat others in the same way.

Children are given the confidence and strategies to speak up and tell of any bullying experiences, knowing that positive action will be taken.

Aims and objectives

- To promote a secure and happy environment free from threat, harassment or any type of bullying behaviour.
- To create a school ethos in which bullying is regarded as unacceptable.
- To produce a consistent school response to any bullying incidents that may occur.
- To inform pupils and parents of the school’s expectations and to foster a productive partnership which helps maintain a bullying-free environment

What is bullying?

Bullying is a conscious and willful repetitive act of aggression and/or manipulation by one or more people against another person or people. It is also an abuse of power by those carrying out the bullying, which is designed to cause harm. If bullying is allowed it harms the perpetrator, the target and the whole school community and its culture of safety and wellbeing in the school.

The Nature of Bullying

Bullying is considered to be:

- deliberately hurtful (including aggression)
- repeated often
- often difficult for individuals who are being bullied to defend themselves against them.

Bullying can take many forms:

- physical: hitting, kicking, taking belongings
- verbal: name calling, insulting, making offensive remarks
- indirect: spreading nasty stories about someone, exclusion from social groups, being made the subject of malicious rumours

- pupils may use the tool of cyber-bullying (e.g. text messages, e-mail or using social networking sites like Facebook , Twitter Instagram or Tumbler)

People may bully others because of varying perceived differences:

- sexism, racism, religion or belief, academic ability, gender identity, homophobia, disability, perceived characteristic (e.g. hair colour or weight) or because of an associate (family member or friend)

Our Approach to Bullying

We believe that if children are encouraged to be good citizens in an environment where they feel stimulated and excited by their learning, it will minimize the occurrence of bullying. We feel it is important to create an atmosphere where our children know that they will be listened to and where their problems and worries are taken seriously and responded to with sensitivity.

Bullying is always unacceptable and always serious. We are committed to creating a safe environment where children can learn and play, can talk about their worries, confident that an adult will listen and will offer help.

Through a variety of planned activities across the curriculum such as circle time, role-play, class performances, sharing assemblies, our children gain in self-confidence and develop strategies to speak up for themselves and express their own thoughts and opinions. Encouraging children to take responsibility by becoming a member of the school council, applying to be a mini teaching assistant or becoming a play leader promotes children's self - confidence. In having this approach we believe this helps to reduce a code of secrecy where children feel too scared to speak up and tell of any bullying experiences.

Our Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) curriculum ensures that each Year Group addresses issues related to bullying in guided lessons and circle time. This may take the form of an explicit approach or maybe implicit, in terms of looking at friendships and valuing each other, appreciating differences, to develop individual self-confidence. In addition to this, the issue of bullying in its many forms is the focus of circle time discussions.

Incidences of bullying brought to the attention of the class teacher are investigated as soon as possible. Information is gathered from pupils and any staff concerned. Any relevant observations are recorded in the teacher's records and the Head teacher is kept informed.

We have two aims when reacting to incidents of bullying:

1. to make the child who has been bullied feel safe
2. to encourage better behaviour from the child who has displayed bullying behaviours, colluders and bystanders

In order to achieve this we use a range of strategies appropriate to the nature, severity and history of the bullying.

If the bullying is a recently established behaviour by an individual or a group which involves regular name-calling, intimidation or social exclusion (but not gross physical violence) a problem solving approach is adopted. The underlying intention is to change the dynamics of the situation, to raise the awareness of the participants about bullying, and to support the peer group in taking responsibility for bullying. It is a seven-step approach.

If the bullying involves an individual or group, who have been involved in bullying on a previous occasion and the school has previously implemented the above problem solving approach, then the following procedure will be followed:

1. the Head teacher/Principal is informed
2. the pupil who has been bullied is interviewed and their comments recorded
3. the pupil or pupils who have displayed bullying behaviours is/are interviewed and comments recorded
4. the parents of the individual who has shown bullying behaviour are contacted and invited to a meeting; a meeting between the Headteacher, pupil and parents is held; the incidents are outlined and the sanctions are detailed.
5. Individual Behaviour Plans to set targets to improve and monitor behaviour are set up which may involve calling upon the expertise of outside agencies.
6. In persistent circumstances sanctions may include:
  - permanent exclusion
  - temporary exclusion
  - exclusion from the school premise at lunchtime
  - exclusion from the playground at lunchtime
  - move out of current class
  - arrangements for parent to supervise pupil to and from school daily
7. The parents/carers of the pupil who has been bullied are kept informed throughout the whole process

The Role of the Governing Body

The governing body monitors the incidents of bullying that occur and reviews the effectiveness of the school policy regularly. This will be done through a monitoring log and through the sample questionnaire which is conducted annually with Year 6. The governors require the Headteacher/Principal to keep accurate records of all incidents of bullying and to report to the governors on request about the effectiveness of school anti-bullying strategies.

The governing body responds within ten days to any request from a parent to investigate incidents of bullying. In all cases, the governing body notifies the Headteacher/Principal and asks her/ him to conduct an investigation into the case and to report back to a representative of the governing body.

Monitoring the Policy

This policy is monitored on a day-to-day basis by the Headteacher/Principal, who reports to governors about the effectiveness of the policy on request. To discover the extent to which bullying exists in school and to monitor the extent to which our anti-bullying policy is effective the log and strategies will be reviewed alongside the Year 6 questionnaire.

The anti-bullying policy is the governors' responsibility and they review its effectiveness annually. They do this by examining the school's anti-bullying logbook and by discussion with the Headteacher. Governors analyse information with regard to gender, age and ethnicity, perceived sexual orientation and any other characteristic/ background of all children involved in bullying incidents.
